National Heritage Week

A Heritage Council programme

Recording milk churn stands and their history

If you know of any milk churn stands still existing in your area, please let us know about them by filling out this short survey. You are providing the information under CC0 licence ("no rights reserved")[1]. If you do not agree, do not fill out the form.

Location of milk churn stand

(describe location as regards to townland, road no., etc):

Location drawing:

(If you can, please draw a sketch of the location with a farm driveway, walls, trees or other landmarks to help us locate it.)

---

[1] CC0 enables scientists, educators, artists and other creators and owners of copyright- or database-protected content to waive those interests in their works and thereby place them as completely as possible in the public domain, so that others may freely build upon, enhance and reuse the works for any purposes without restriction under copyright or database law.

Location GPS. Please do not use GoogleMaps, go to www.openstreetmap.org, zoom in on your location, right-click with your mouse, choose "Show address" and copy the GPS coordinates you see in the search bar. You don't need to use the previous two, if you provide GPS.

_____

Tell us about the milk churn stand!

How overgrown is it? What is it made of? Are there milk churns standing on top? Are the milk churns numbered or painted? How many steps are there? Does it have a shelf? Which creamery did it serve? Are there any local stories involving the milk churn stand? What was the name of the person who delivered the churns to the creamery? Were there other stands nearby?

Please email your completed survey to info@kilkennylibrary.ie or return it to any Kilkenny library, marked for attention of Library Headquarters.

If you can, please photograph the milk churn stand and upload them on commons.wikimedia.org with the category "Milk churn stands in County Kilkenny" (or whatever county you found it in)!

https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/Category:Milk_churn_stands_in_County_Kilkenny

Thank you so much!